FEBRUARY

Community News

The 392nd Army Band is currently scheduling performances for Music In Our Schools during March. To request a 392nd Army Band performance at your school, complete the request for support form. Be sure to list more than one day to help the band with scheduling. Return the forms by email, fax or regular mail to Fort Lee Public Affairs by February 15, 2012. The band will then develop and distribute a schedule to visit as many schools and students as possible in March. These performances averaging an hour each—will be patriotic, educational and fun.

The 37th Annual Military Culinary Arts Competition takes place on post February 29 through March 7. This all-service event is the largest demonstration of military culinary skills in the country. It features live food demonstrations, gourmet displays, ice carving, chocolate and sugar sculptures, and many more impressive culinary showcases and treats. This year's competition is bigger and better than ever, with more competitors, more competition categories, and an International challenge. Public days for the event are February 29-March 7. Fort Lee welcomes tours of the event by public schools, colleges, universities and vocational schools. If interested in a tour of the competition, please fill out the form and return to Fort Lee Public Affairs by February 22, 2012.

The Community Relations page on the Fort Lee Website is updated. Please visit the new user-friendly page for information, forms, links of interest and news. The Post Card is available on the page along with the Request for Support Form, Third Thursday Tour Schedule and more.
